Who are we and what do we do?

Canadian LifeLight Ministries is a non-profit ministry with a passion for helping God's people reach out to others with His Word, providing Bibles in contemporary easy-to-understand language in various formats – some with testimonies, study helps, and well as many others.

Partnering with many churches, we provide them with Scripture resources for ministry and outreach. We try to assist in helping congregations effectively share their faith outside the church walls, letting them know they can give out Scripture that meets people where they are in life.

We also assist underfunded inner-city ministries, donating Bibles to their cause to help them maximize their outreach ministry potential.

LifeLight is committed to distribution of Scripture in many Northern reserves, especially to schools. We also try to develop relationships within these communities and have seen miraculous transformations as people embrace His Word.

We provide many Christ-centered camps with Bibles to hand out to every child or teen that does not have one, recognizing many of these children are un-churched and the Bible they bring home may be the only one their family has ever owned.

Prison chaplains are another prime focus for LifeLight distribution. We have a Bible geared especially to prisoners, with testimonies of real inmates that have found Christ, making this Bible relevant to them, in large-print on smoke-free paper.

We assist youth outreach ministries, providing them with Bibles for today's youth, with hot topics relating specifically to teens, sport-themed New Testaments and others. Many have testimonies or can help deal with specific issues, such as purity.

Finally, we raise funds through churches, businesses and individuals to help support all these projects, ministries and the individuals who have committed themselves to breaking down the walls of comfort and are doing what we have been commanded to do by our Lord and Savior, SHARING.....OUR.....FAITH.

Changing Lives...

My experience with the Bible, any Bible, was virtually non-existent prior to coming to jail. Within the walls of this often-disheartening place, I have been exposed to God's Word in several uplifting texts. The LifeLight Bibles I am reading are helping in shedding light in the wilderness of my life.

I spent my first night in jail, alone in a cold cell with nothing to ease my fears or comfort my heavy heart—nothing but a book called Find God. As I began turning the pages, I was surprised to find it easy to read and understand. Many of my initial questions were answered. I was comforted, and felt as though I were no longer alone.

The Bible had always seemed intimidating to me, and I shied away from it, but my chaplain offered me support and provided other Bibles to help satisfy my hunger for knowledge. I received a Free on the Inside Bible (specifically for inmates) when I sought a reprieve from the loneliness of confinement, which also taught me that true freedom cannot be found in the physical walls around us. I was guided by indexes to helpful text regarding sorrow, family, suffering and sin.

He provided me with the right book at the right time. So, even though I am in jail, I am free.

My faith journey started in a thrift store. I was picking up a few items and happened to pick up a book that looked interesting. After I started to read it, I realized I had picked up a New Testament. It didn't take me long to finish reading the whole thing! I found it so easy to understand with all the extra helps that were included to let me finally understand what the Bible means. I just knew this New Testament was placed in that store just for me so, at 42 years old, I accepted Christ into my heart and made him number one in my life.

I was visiting my eye doctor soon after I accepted Christ. His office just so happened to be right beside the LifeLight Ministries office and I decided to pop in to tell them my story and thank them. We have become great friends and get more Bibles from them all the time. I want others to know Christ as personally as I do and I know that I can share His love by giving out His Word.

It is the same with my word.
I send it out, and it always produces fruit.
It will accomplish all I want it to,
and it will prosper everywhere I send it.

Isaiah 55:11 (NLT)

I would like to help LifeLight Ministries in their distribution of Scripture to those in need.
